BANK CASE DISMISSED

On the ground that the Peoples Bank and Trust Company was not a bank and therefore could not be convicted of accepting deposits in a bank when he knew it was insolvent, the case which has been pending against J. F. Cleveland in the district court for several years, was dismissed last week. With this final act the curtain falls on the Peoples bank and the large amount of litigation that arose out of its failure by all at which was being accomplished. Silver City Enterprise.
